COUNTRY Csachoslovakia SUBJECT Greeks in Czechoslovakia 25X1 PLACE ACQUIRED BY SOURCE DATE OF INFORMATION DATE OF INFORMATION 25X1	·	Approved Ct & Refie & U00 300 300 300 CIA-RDP82-00047R00010 046257618)UD427
COUNTRY Csechoslovakia SUBJECT Greeks in Csechoslovakia 25X1 PLACE ACQUIRED DATE ACQUIRED BY SOURCE DATE OF INFORMATION 25X1		CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY 25X
SUBJECT Greeks in Czechoslovakia 25X1 PLACE ACQUIRED BY SOURCE DATE OF INFORMATION 25X1		INFORMATION REPORT
25X1 ACQUIRED BY SOURCE DATE OF INFORMATION 25X1 25X1	COUNTRY	Czechoslovakia DATE DISTR. J. J.	ın 52
ATE OF INFORMATION 25X1	SUBJECT		/
25X1	OLAGE.	25X1	.
25X1		(LISTED BELOW)
25X1	DATE ACQUIRED BY	SUPPLEMENT TO	1
25X1	DATE OF INFO	RMA TION	i.
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 Lost their husbands in world War II. The Orecks were not scattered among the Czechs but had settled in larger groups, often setting up their own colony. Most of these groups had settled in the northwestern and later in the eastern part of Moravia, in the districts of Jesenik (formerly Frywaldov) and Valasske Mezirici. Most of the men were employed in the construction and building industries; the women worked on the state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. 25X1 25X1 25X1 The children were well fed and housed, and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any lany complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia.	THES DOCUMENT CONTAI
25X1		TS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS	TION
25X1		20// 1	1
25X1
25X1
25X1
25X1 25X2 25X2 25X2 25X2 25X2 25X3 25X3 25X3 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X5 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X7 25X7 25X7 25X8
the number of Greeks living in Czecho- slovakia totalled about 10 thousand. Arong this number were many women who had lost their husbands in world War II. The Greeks were not scattered among the Czechs but had settled in larger groups, often setting up their own colony. Most of these groups had settled in the northwestern and later in the eastern part of Moravia, in the districts of Jesenik (formerly Frywaldov) and Valasske Mezirici. Most of the men were employed in the con- struction and building industries; the women worked on the state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. The children were well fed and housed, and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia.	25X1	L _c
the number of Greeks living in Czecho- slovakia totalled about 10 thousand. Arong this number were many women who had lost their husbands in world War II. The Greeks were not scattered among the Czechs but had settled in larger groups, often setting up their own colony. Most of these groups had settled in the northwestern and later in the eastern part of Moravia, in the districts of Jesenik (formerly Frywaldor) and Valasske Mezirici. Most of the men were employed in the con- struction and building industries; the women worked on the state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. The children were well fed and housed, and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1	25¥1
Slovakia totalled about 10 thousand. Arong this number were many women who had lost their husbands in World War II. The Greeks were not scattered among the Czechs but had settled in larger groups, often setting up their own colony. Most of these groups had settled in the northwestern and later in the eastern part of Moravia, in the districts of Jesenik (formerly Frywaldov) and Valasske Mezirici. Most of the men were employed in the construction and building industries; the women worked on the state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. The children were well fed and housed, and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs, of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia.	20/(1	the number of Greeks living in Czecho-lost their husbands in World War II. The Greeks were not scattered among the Czechs but had settled in larger groups, often setting up their own colony. Most of these groups had settled in the northwestern and later in the eastern part of Moravia, in the districts of Jesenik (formerly Frywaldov) and Valasske Mezirici. Most of the men were employed in the construction and building industries; the women worked on the state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. The Greeks in Czechoslovakia were solidly pro-Communist. The children were well fed and housed; and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. CLASSIFICATION SECRET. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET. 25X1		slovakia totalled about 10 thousand.
often setting up their own colony. Most of these groups had settled in the northwestern and later in the eastern part of Moravia, in the districts of Jesenik (formerly Frywaldov) and Valasske Mezirici. Most of the men were employed in the construction and building industries; the women worked on the state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. The Greeks in Czechoslovakia were solidly pro-Communist. The children were well fed and housed, and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1	25X1	lost their husbands in World War II. The Greeks were not Moravia, in the districts of Jesenik (formerly Frywaldov) and Valasske Mezirici. Most of the men were employed in the construction and building industries; the women worked on the state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. 25X1		often setting up their own colony. Most of these groups had struction and building industries; the women worked on the state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. the Greeks in Czechoslovakia were solidly pro-Communist. The children were well fed and housed; and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. 25X1 25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1		Moravia, in the districts of Jesenik (formerly Frywaldov) and state agriculture farms. Older children received training in various trades. the Greeks in Czechoslovakia were solidly pro-Communist. The children were well fed and housed, and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1		Valasske Mezirici. Most of the men were employed in the con-
the Greeks in Czechoslovakia were solidly pro-Communist. The children were well fed and housed, and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1		state agriculture farms. Older children received training in	, ,
The children were well fed and housed, and given a chance to learn a trade by the Czech government. The Greeks retained their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs. of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1		the Greeks in Czechoslovakia were solidly pro-Communist.
their own customs; they did not associate very much with the Czechs of any disturbances among Czechs and Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1	25X1	The children were well fed and housed, and given a change to
Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1	25X1	their own customs; they did not associate very much with the
25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1	25X1	Greeks, nor any complaints or rumors of bad
CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1	25X1	behaviour on the part of the Greek groups in Czechoslovakia.
CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1	25X1		7
	20/(1
	•
	L	CLASSIFICATION SECRET 25X1
TATE EV MAYY X HEC X DISTRIBUTION	TATE EVX	MAYY X AEC X DISTRIBUTION

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt